Starting September 12, 2010, there will be a new Sunday school class called the CUC (Christians Under Construction). This adult class will cover all aspects of Christianity including, the history of Christianity, being a Christian in today's society, and how Christians are able to grow in their walk with God. The CUC class will meet Sundays at 9:45am in the Conference Room in Epworth Hall across from the nursery. We welcome college students, singles, and families with or without children.
